

WORK STYLE

The lines between work life and home life are blurred. Working and living in the same loft allows us to create whenever we are inspired. We move seamlessly between spaces, states of mind and ideas. The world is softer, more fluid, more generous, more adaptive and more diverse. We shape our environment to model not only our productivity or efficiency, but our values and ideals. Our projects, our purpose, our fun and our distractions fall somewhere between work and the business of living. This is our work life.

SOFA

Our home is a reflection of our personal taste and aesthetics, with the space conveying our passions, our work and lives in one cohesive environment. Quality of life is improved and the creative process is rejuvenated within a beautiful environment. Arper's sofas allow us to meet, connect and communicate – not around a table, but comfortably seated. They are aimed at helping to create an environment for communication – one of openness, generosity, of being able to listen, respond and to flow.
